VERY SHARP CONTESTS IN COLLEGE ELECTIONS

cal Officers-Lafayette Candidates for Debris Editorships.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 1.-The It proved to be one of the most spirited and secretary-treasurer.

F. G. Gleason, of this city, was elected president over Charles A. Lehmann, of New Albany, by 61 to 52. Several other Elkhart, was elected secretary-treasurer. James Zimmerman, of Vandalia, was Funk, of Elkhart, by 67 to 59.

staff, the fraternity members and nonfraternity faction each having a set of candidates. The final struggle for election will take place next Saturday. For editor-in-chief, Closterhouse, independent, is pitted against Thomas Sheerin, the fraternity candidate. Averill, Burgess, Millard and Ritter are all aspirants for the literary editorship. Ray Jamison, a fraternity member, is running against McPartland, the baseball player, for business manager. William Kaylor is the fraternity candidate for athletic editor. His opponent is Charles Nussbaum. Kaylor will probably get the votes of many of the independent men because of his athletic record. For the position of artist, Marchand is opposing Lafayette Dealers Unable to Buy Shearer. For assistant editor-in-chief the following were placed in nomination: Miss Nelson and Messrs. Snyder, Warren, Hall and Greenwood.

SALOON WAR RESUMED.

Knightstown Citizens Remonstrate Against License Seeker.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Feb. 1.-The Good Citizens' League of Knightstown to-day filed a remonstrance with the County Commissioners against Alex. McCarty, a local liquor dealer, who had applied for license. This action will probably mean the renewal of the temperance fight which raged here for several months during the past summer. McCarty was defeated at every turn, but finally secured a license through another applicant, who is conducting the business. McCarty was the only one of four saloon men granted a license. Recently he purchased another business block here and remodeled it. He then applied for license. There is only one saloon here, and it probably will be closed.

TRYING TO SETTLE IT.

Trouble of Chicago & South Shore May Be Taken Out of Court.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAPORTE, Ind., Feb. 1.-Efforts are being made to reach an amicable adjustment of the receivership proceedings in the Federal Court at Indianapolis of the Royal Trust Company against the Chicago & South Shore Railway Company, operating the interurban line between Laporte and Michigan City.

It is possible that before Thursday, when the case is set for trial before Judge Anderson, an agreement may be reached whereby the Mallory estate, of Chariton, Ia., which owns most of the outstanding bonds and also holds a lien against the company, will assume charge of the system.

WEDDINGS IN INDIANA.

M'HUGH-BROWN.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 1 .- The marriage of John F. McHugh, of this city, and Mrs. Eva Welch Brown, of Toledo, O., was solemnized at the Boody House in Toledo at noon to-day. Ferdinand Welch, father of the bridegroom, is the owner of the Boody House and Mr. McHugh is a former State senator and one of the leading attorneys of northern Indiana. The marriage was quiet, only a few guests being present After the ceremony the couple left for Palm Beach, Fla., where they will spend a few weeks, afterward returning to this city for ROBBINS-M'CLOUD.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SULLIVAN, Ind., Feb. 1.-Charles Robbins, of Indianapolis, and Miss Grace McCloud, of this city, were married this morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McCloud. Mr. and nediately after the ceremony for Indianapolis, where they will

A Month Without Fires. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 1 .- During the month of January not a penny's worth of damage was done by fire in Lafayette, the report of C. M. Johnson, clerk of the fire department, completed to-day, showing this unprecedented state of affairs. There were four fire alarms during the month, but all were chimneys. The fire department was called ont but nine times, and not one of these calls were necessary. The expense of maintaining the department for the month was $1,505.25.

Catt Probably In Missouri.

PETERSBURG, Ind., Feb. 1.-Marshall Watson has given up all hopes of getting Willard Catt, the alleged leader of the Gladish Chapel gang, for some time to come. Reliable information from the Catt cettlement indicates that the escaped pris-oner is with friends in Missouri, and that his apprehension will be a big task for the Pike county officials.

Withdrawal of Frank H. Snyder.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PORTLAND, Ind., Feb. 1.-Frank H. Snyder, of this city, to-day announced his withdrawal from the congressional race. This leaves the field clear for M. M. Dunlap, of Anderson, as the only opponent of George W. Cromer. The fight will be close in Jay

SCARCITY OF GRAIN.

Enough to Fill Orders.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 1.-Lafayette grain dealers are facing a wheat famine, and in spite of the heavy harvest last fall they are having great difficulty in meeting their orders. The farmers refuse to be allured by the attractive prices now offered, ranging from 82 to 87 cents, but are holding their stores of grain in the belief that the price will mount even higher. Many of them are determined not to sell until the price reaches $1 a bushel, which the older agriculturists declare is soon to Only the farmers who need the money are selling at present, and most of that class sold their grain early in the season, so Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 1.-From the effects of injuries received in a fiercelyfought football game between the Dayton and Klondike teams last Thanksgiving day, Ray Edwards, a young man north of Dayton, this county, died this morning. Edwards was the son of James Edwards and played on the Dayton eleven. In the game his spine was hurt and he had been slowly dying ever since.

Mirage Seen at Petersburg.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PETERSBURG, Ind., Feb. 1.-A striking mirage was visible here yesterday morning, the representation of a gas or oil derrick, with the men at work about it, being plainly visible. It seemed to be on a hillside, about half a mfle from the rig at the Carter glass works, of which it seemed to be a duplicate. Contrary to the usual appearance of a mirage, the derrick seemed to be right side up.

Hanover Will Play Y. M. C.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, Ind., Feb. 1.-The Hanover College basketball team will play the Young Men's Club five here Friday night. The locals had a game scheduled with the Louisville Male High School team, but the game was canceled and one secured with Hanover instead. Since Hanover has been doing some great playing in the past few weeks a fast game is looked for.

Methodist Church Damaged.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 1 .- Fire damaged the new Methodist Church at Chalmers last night to the extent of $1,000, and for a time the flames threatened to destroy the structure, erected at a cost of $5,000 two years ago. An overheated furnace in the basement started the fire. The work of the bucket brigade saved the building from destruction. The loss is covered by in-
